Additionally, 10 investigations were initiated and 8 arrests were executed.

Events of Interest:

- On June 4th, Howell Officers were dispatched to the Sunoco Gas Station for skimming devices that were on three gas pumps. Store manager advised a white male came into the store yelling. The male said he got gas there yesterday and today his bank account was missing $250.00. Casey then checked all of the gas pumps and found three skimmer devices. Store manager advised that he checked the pumps about a week ago. The manager further stated that he has no idea when the skimmers were installed. Investigation has been turned over to the FBI.
- On June 4th, Howell Officers were dispatched to the Kensington Inn for a physical domestic assault. Officers located the female victim waiting in the lobby who had fled her room. She advised her boyfriend had forced her to stay in the room and he had hit and choked her. Officers checked the room and the 27 year old male suspect had fled the area. A search of the area was conducted and he could not be located. Felony charges were issued in this case.
- On June 6th, Officers responded to Howell High School for a possession of Marijuana complaint. Two female students were stopped by school staff coming in from the parking lot. The students were found to be in possession of marijuana. The students had been in a vehicle in the parking lot smoking. They were issued a suspension from school and a request for charges was forwarded to the prosecutor's office.
- On June 6th, Howell Officers were dispatched to a report of a home owner arriving home to find a male subject that she did not know on her couch sleeping. Upon arrival, Officers made contact with the subject who was highly intoxicated. The subject was known to officers and refused a PBT. He was lodged at the Livingston County Jail on Unlawful Entry and Disorderly Conduct charges.
- On June 10th, Howell Officers were dispatched to a report of a physical domestic incident that had taken place on the roadway in a vehicle. Upon arrival, Officers conducted their investigation which resulted in the discovery that this was also an OWI incident. The driver was lodged at the Livingston County Jail for Operating While Intoxicated. A warrant request was also completed regarding the domestic incident and sent to the Prosecutor's Officer for review.

- On June 14th, Howell Officers were dispatched to a local business for a report of a subject inside that was disorderly and refusing to leave. The subject was found to be intoxicated and had a warrant out for his arrest. He was lodged at the Livingston County Jail for Disorderly Conduct as well as the warrant.
- On June 23rd, Howell Officers were dispatched to a local business for a Retail Fraud in progress. Upon arrival, Loss Prevention had lost sight of the subject but there was good surveillance footage that was obtained. The footage showed a tattoo on the suspect's arm that was easily identifiable. During a following shift, the subject returned to the store and was again attempting to steal. A Day Shift officer made contact and based on the footage as well as previous details, the suspect was arrested and lodged at the jail.
- On June 30th, LAWNET officers conducted surveillance in Howell City on suspects that are known Heroin/Cocaine and Methamphetamine users. LAWNET officers followed the suspect to the City of Detroit and back to Howell. LAWNET officers then conducted a traffic stop in Howell. Upon making that stop, the driver was arrested for possession of Heroin, Cocaine and Analogues. The passenger at the time of the stop was ingesting pills as fast as she could. She was also taken into custody and transported to St Joes Livingston hospital for treatment. The female suspect remained at the hospital for treatment and a warrant was requested from the Prosecutor's Office.
